

MY GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME!

I am studying in an art school where my mind have to constantly think, conceptualize, imagine, coming up with new theories to support my work, which at the same time is worsening my faith. Bulk of my time is spent in my studio with my studio mates and like most rebellious teenagers, I mixed around with bad company, many times almost got myself into trouble. The feeling of having freedom was awesome but deep down; I was unhappy and felt empty. This freedom gave me independence and made me feel I no longer needed anyone. I was on my own. I begin to backslide and turned away from God as I felt that I do not deserve him. I hated myself for my sins, especially the way I think. My faith was weak and my relationship with God was terrible.

My change began when my best friend asked me to help play guitar for Church of Sengkang. I was willing to help but never thought it will change my life. In May 2009, I joined Church of Sengkang for a mission trip to Philippines. This mission trip was a turning point in my life. It was then, when I realized I was weak, sad, helpless and needed God in my life and how much He loves me. I learned to humble and bow down before our Lord. I thank the Lord for saving me, guiding me and protecting from my wilderness and darkest moments. Since that day I came back from Philippines, I felt I am a changed man! I stopped my bad habits, and am still faithfully attending Sunday service and Life Group every week. Praise the lord for saving my soul and loving a sinner like me!
